CENTRE COUNTY REPUBLICANS!

Held a Large and Enthusiastic Convention.

STRONG TICKET NAMED

Kline for Sheriff, Swartz for Treasurer, Bailey and Miller for Commissioners, Hall for Recorder, Tuten for Register, Huff for Coroner, Pontius and Musser for Auditors.

QUIGLEY FOR COUNTY CHAIRMAN

And "it didn't snow the next day" but the weather bureau came out smiling about the time the Republican County convention assembled in the court house Tuesday forenoon at 11 o'clock.

Not in many years, if ever, did the Republican voters of Centre county send a more representative array of delegates to a county convention than was the fact on this occasion. Harmony reigned in every quarter and the forebodings are that the entire Republican ticket nominated at this time will be elected.

As a prominent Democrat remarked to the writer during the day; "It is fortunate that the law allows us at least one County Commissioner, for if it didn't we would not elect a single officer this year. Never in the history of its existence has the Democratic party of Centre county been in as sore straits as it is today."

The writer left the well posted Democrat to his opinion, but the more you consider the situation the more truthful his assertion becomes.

The Republican hereby makes a prediction, that if the Republican voters of Centre county stand together this year the foregoing Democrats' opinion is pretty nearly correct. There are hundreds of Democrats of the county who are sick and tired of Democratic rule and who will this year turn in and support the Republican county ticket. This condition of affairs is due to the change of political opinion since November of last year.

LOVE AS CHAIRMAN.

Ex-Borough Treasurer Charles F. Cook, when the time came, nominated ex-Judge John G. Love as president of the convention. Because both of these gentlemen chance to be exs is no criterion by which to judge either their personal or political supremacy. Everybody who ever heard Judge Love address an audience knows his loyalty to American citizenship and he puts it far above any and all political preferance. In his address he had no word derogatory to any other political organization, but suggested that when any particular party comes together for the purpose of selecting candidates that the majority should rule.

Felicitating the convention he told the truth when he said that never in the history of this government have the prospects for a continuation of these conditions been brighter than they are at this time. In his calm and dignified manner no man ever presided over a Centre county Republican convention with more dignity and dispatch than did Judge Love.

WORK OF NOMINATIONS.

When the nominations were opened the first office announced was for that of Sheriff. Henry Kline, of Spring township was the only nominee for that office and of course his election was made by acclamation.

For the treasureship three ballots were required. On the first ballot L. E. Swartz, of Walker, had 52 votes; Isaac Underwood, of Bellefonte, 34; H. M. Allison, Gregg Twp. 48. On the second ballot Swartz had 51, Underwood 34 and Allison 50. According to the rules of the organization, after the second ballot the lowest man's name was dropped and the result between the two remaining ones was 63 to 68, on the third ballot.

On the County Commissionership only one ballot was taken, which resulted as follows: A. V. Miller, Spring Twp., 72; J. G. Bailey, Ferguson Twp., 97; H. E. Zimmerman, Benner Twp., 57, Jacob Woodring, Worth Twp. 46. This vote gave the nomination to Miller and Bailey.

In the Recordership H. H. Hewitt and Cyrus E. Hall, both of Philipsburg, were placed in nomination. One vote resulted in a choice by 64 votes for Hewitt and 71 for Hall.

E. C. Tuten, by acclamation was nominated for Register while Dr. S. M. Huff is named to be the next coroner of Centre county.

For Auditors R. D. Musser, of Gregg and H. B. Pontius, of Bellefonte, had no opposition.

As delegates to the state convention every voter in the convention was vociferous for Harry Keller, Bellefonte; Capt. George M. Boal. Centre Hall, William Hurley, Hilipsburg.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

Without a doubt one of the prominent features of the day's convention, beside the selection of a most excellent ticket, was that of deciding on H. C. Quigley Esq., as chairman of the county committee. Mr. Quigley is a native Centre countian. He is thoroughly conversant with all the details of good government and when the Democratic party gets through with him, at the end of his term, it will know with whom it was dealing.

T. M. Gramley, chairman of the committee on resolutions, in his thoroughly Republican stentorian voice, reported the will of the committee, which thoroughly endorses the national, the state, the congressional, the district and state senatorial, the legislative and the Republican county affairs.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS

Central Organization Has Its Headquarters in Switzerland.

WOMEN IN BAND

Two Nieces of Governor General Trepoff Has Been Converted to Doctrine of Assassination.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE OF THE LEADERS

St. Petersburg, April 19.—Gradually many interesting details surrounding the recent arrest of a band of about a dozen Terrorists are leaking out. The capture, which is regarded by the authorities, as being of immense importance was accompanied by Kashovsky, the Russian Lecocq, who was dismissed from the secret police several years on a charge of connection with Ithe Philippe, the spiritualist, who created such a stir at court several years ago and who went to Paris to live.

Governor General Trepoff upon his appointment as Governor General of St. Petersburg allowed Karnovsky to return to St. Petersburg and within two weeks the detective captured the entire band which had been operating here under the direction of the central organization which apparently has its headquarters in Switzerland.

ALL BELONGED TO TERRORISTS.

Alfred Henry McCullugh, the man killed March 11 by the accidental explosion of a bomb at the Hotel Bristol, whose real name was Bauman, was one of the chiefs of the Terrorists, having charge of the manufacture of bombs. Kaleiff, who killed Grand Duke Sergius, also belonged to the same group. After Bauman's death Kaleiff's duties devolved on Mlle. Leontieff (daughter of General Leontieff, who was recently appointed governor of Loutsk, Eastern Siberia), who became a convert to Terrorism during her stay at Lucerne, Switzerland.

Kaleiff's identity was established through the discovery of photograph belonged to Savinkoff who had been his comrade both at the university and in exile. When Kaleieff was charged with his identity he admitted it, saying "Savinkoff has been arrested."

The police later thought they had captured Savinkoff and so announced publicly. But it turns out that the man held under that name was another and that Savinkoff, to whom Kaleieff evidently had confided his intention of killing Grand Duke Sergius, is still safe abroad.

TREPOFF'S NIECES CONVERTED.

Among the others captured was Madama Ivanovskia, a sister-in-law of Korolenko, the Russian author. She was involved in the Nihilist plot to assassinate Emperor Alexander II, for which she was sentenced to fifteen years in Siberia, but at the end of seven years she escaped to America.

Perhaps the most romantic feature is the fact that Mlle. Leontieff converted two nieces of Governor General Trepoff, Mlle. Trepoff and Princess Dinishoff, to the doctrine of assassination and that after the arrest of her mentor, Mlle, Trepoff actually attempted the life of her uncle, firing two shots at him, both of which missed.

Thereupon the two girls became panic-stricken and attempted suicide, Mlle. Trepoff throwing herself under a train and Princess Dinishoff shooting herself. Neither of them succeeded in killing themselves. The family has since tried to make it appear that the girl's acts were the result of a mutual pact for self destruction, both being in love with the same man, an officer af the guard.

MANY STUDENTS IMPRISONED.

About one hundred male and female students of the conservatory of music, who have been connected with the agitation in favor of Rimiski Korsakoff (who was removed from his professorship in the conservatory because of his attitude towards the striking students) have been arrested and sentenced to a month's imprisonment.

She was a descendant of the Kleckners and Klines, good old Pennsylvania families, who trace their ancestry back to colonial times. She was married early in her young womanhood to John Hoy, of Bellefonte, who preceded her to the grave some seventeen years ago. Her life was passed in Bellefonte and vicinity until ten years ago, when she went to Altoona, and had since made her home with her son, Dr. Hoy. She was a member of the Lutheran church and always a devout Christian woman, whose friends were legion, both in Altoona and in Centre county. She is survived by these children: Dr. H. K. Hoy, of Altoona, Dr. F. P. Hoy, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Minnie wife of Rev. William Gibb, of Irvona; Justis C. and Ida V. Hoy, residing with Dr. Hoy. Look to Your Insurance Policies.

The Philadelphia Press of October 15 says: "Judge Beitler's insurance decision rendered last Tuesday, is naturally startling to property owners. They ought to be startled if they have not examined their policies closely. For if a policy contains the following clause it is probable that the holder is paying for insurance which does not insure. The clause reads:

"'This entire policy shall be void if the building herein described, whether intended for occupancy by owner or tenant, be or becomes vacant or unoccupied and so remains for ten days.'

"Under this contract Judge Beitler holds when a man's tenant moves out and he fails to secure another within ten days the insurance policy is at an end. The owners of rented houses will do well to note this provision. Those who vacate their city homes in the summer time will be interested in this remark of Judge Beitler.

"'If a man takes his family to the sea shore and vacates his property for more than ten days by the terms of this policy he is without insurance.'

"It is claimed that the insurance companies do not enforce this provision unless they suspect they have not been treated fairly by the policy holder, in which case they may raise their technical defense to avoid paying his insurance. But no one wants the payment of his insurance to depend on the favor or indulgence of the insurance company. He is paying for a right that he can sue upon and enforce, no matter what may be the prejudices and preferences of the company. But if his policy contains this little joker, making it void if the house is vacant ten days, and he then closes his house for the summer, he has no real insurance, even through the company as an act of grace may intend to pay his loss if his house is destroyed.

"It is true that the insurance companies, if applied to, will grant permission for a house to remain vacant without voiding the policy. A careful person, who has noticed the condition, will have the permission indorsed on his policy as often as he leaves his house vacant. Those less observant and thoughtful—and they are the great majority—will fail to do this, and the insurance they thought they had purchased cannot be collected unless the company voluntarily consents to pay it.

"All house owners should look to their insurance policies and take the necessary precaution to prevent a ten days vacancy making their insurance valueless, except by the grace of the insurance company."

The following are some of the clauses in the average insurance policies.

This entire policy, unless otherwise provided by agreement, indorsed hereon or added hereto shall be avoid if the insured has or shall hereafter make or procure any other contract of insurance, whether valid or not, on property covered in whole or in part by this policy, * * * or if mechanics be employed in building, altering or repairing the within described premises for more than fifteen days at any one time; or if the interest of the insured be other than unconditional and sole ownership,

* * or if any change other than by the death of the insured take place in the interest, title or possesion of the subject of insurance (except change of occupants without increase of hazard) whether by legal process or judgment or by voluntary act of the insured, or otherwise, or if this policy be assigned before a loss! * * * or if a building herein described, whether intended for occupancy by owner or tenant, be or become vacant or unoccupied and so remain for ten days.

A Simple Remedy for Acquiring Hard Muscles and a Sound Body.

A number 12 bore gun when loaded with three drams of powder will send a load of shot further and shoot harder than if double this amount of powder is used.

If too much powder is used, all of it will not explode until it leaves the muzzle of the gun.

That portion which does not explode at the proper time, interferes with the direction, and checks the velocity or force of the shot.

Hard muscles and a strong body do not depend on the quantity of food, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation.

If the nutrient properties of all of the food that may be eaten are appropriated by the blood and tissues, the muscles of the body will grow harder and stronger, whether you eat much or little.

You may be well, but not strong. What you want is strength,—physical force.

You do not have to be sick to need Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Thousands of men and millions of women have need for just what Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will do for them.

A little Kodol after meals, will enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate every atom of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten.

It will do more.

It will enable the stomach to extract from the food all its nutrient properties, and contribute the same to the blood.

It will enable the blood to circulate freely and deposit a full quota of this tissue-building and strength-giving material into every nook, corner, muscle and fibre of your whole being.

The result is perfect strength.

And perfect health.

Disease cannot lay hold on the man or woman whose physical condition is thus fortified. Recommended by Green's Pharmacy Co.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Forty years ago Saturday Abraham Lincoln died. Greatest of Americans, greatest of men, he did his duty as he saw it and was, under the guidance of Divine Providence, enabled to lead a shattered Nation to the inner verge of the Promised Land of reunion and reconstruction.

Much has happened in that forty years which has been unfortunate for the North and the South; much that ought to have been left undone much omitted that ought to have been performed. Yet here we stand at this late day, when many of Lincoln's friends are still alive, and we will look upon him as the Great American.

He died at the summit of his fame. To mortals it seems that he departed at the very time when he was most needed, and it shall never be forgotten that it was the South which most appreciated the intensity and immensity of his loss. Yet it may have been ordered that the greatest punishment which should come to the South was after the war was over and when it was deprived of the wisdom and loving kindness of Abraham Lincoln.

At least this can be said: That wherever there is love of man for man, wherever there is love of man for God, wherever there is a deep sense of the value of the good and the true and the beautiful in this world, Abraham Lincoln's name leads all the rest. It may be in the halls of the powerful and rich or in the cabins of the lowly freedman, it may be in the palaces of Europe or in the hut of the Japanese or Igorrote or Pategonian peasant—certainly it is the truth, that wherever sweetness and light and a modicum of knowledge have entered the human life, there the name of the great American patriot is enshrined.

When comes there such another?

THE SESSION OF 1905!

Of the State Legislature Passes Into History

THE CLOSING INCIDENTS

The Susquehanna City Hospital Appropriation Fails—Virginia Sends Greeting in Acknowledgement of Jamestown Appropriation.

OVER 500 BILLS FOR THE GOVERNOR

Harrisburg, April 14.—The session of 1905 of the Pennsylvania Legislature closed at noon Thursday, leaving with Governor Pennypacker a large number of bills to be disposed of in the next 30 days. Outside the adoption of reports of conference committees on appropriation bills there was very little business done by either body on the last night. Both Houses cleaned up their work at 2 o'clock Thursday morning and then adjourned until 11 o'clock when the usual closing scenes were enacted.

One of the last acts of the House was to defeat at Thursday night's session the Goehring Newspaper Retraction bill, after it had once been defeated and then reconsidered. The General Appropriation bill carrying $16,500.000 for the ordinary expenses of the state and the support of the public schools for the next two years passed without being sent to a conference committee. This is probably the first time this has ever been done and attention was called to this by Speaker Walton when it was taken up by the House for concurrence in the Senate amendments.

One of the most important measures in the House Thursday night was the adoption of the report of the conference committee on the bill abolishing the fees of district attorneys in counties of less than 150,000 population. The bill was amended by the conference committee so as to provide that in no case shall the amount of salary be more than $1,000 a year in excess of the aggregate amount of fees received in the year 1904 by the district attorney of the county to which the act applies.

The customary distribution of gifts to the principal officers and employes of the House was made at Thursday's session. Many of the members left for their homes immediately after the close of the session. The employes will stay over for a few days to clean up their work and put the chambers in condition to turn over to the Board of Public Buildings. An additional force of men will be put to work immediately to work on the New Capitol in order that it may be completed by next January, as required by the law appropriating $4.000,000 for the building.

Bellefonte Reaching the Horseless Age.

About five hundred people witnessed an interesting event Thursday afternoon on South Allegheny Street. Prof. F. E. Foss, of State College, in his Stanley steamer, and John P. Lyon in his model "F" Cadilac, ran their machines to the top of Reservoir hill, looking to the observers as though they were climbing the roof of a house.

Reservoir hill, the steepest of our many hilly streets, has an average grade of over thirty per cent, at times rising to forty five per cent and full of ruts and gulies. The exhibition made all those who saw it realize that the automobile has come to stay.

Samuel T. Brooks has purchased the handsome new Cadilac from Mr. Lyon and intends to run an automobile livery this summer. With an automobile bus in daily use by the Brockerhoff House and an automobile livery ready for service, we in Bellefonte are rapidly reaching the horseless age not withstanding our hills.

Bellefonte and Centre County Becoming Famous in Literature.

To the Editor of the Republican.

Sir:—It seems to be more or less of a habit for our good citizens, when they have anything in or on their minds to send a communication to your esteemed paper.

Notwithstanding the fact that there have been a number of things on which public attention has been somewhat fixed lately, Orphans Home, Soldiers Monument, Curtin Statue. Talleyrand's visit. etc, etc.

I have been a little surprised, nevertheless, that no mention has been made in any of the public prints, of the literary attention Centre County is now receiving.

It is, perhaps an unusual honor that two novels have lately appeared, the scenes for which are in both cases openly laid in our midst. Other towns must think us careless or indifferent to the fact, with less local pride than of yore.

There is first that somewhat startlingly familiar picture of olden days in Bellefonte which Mr. Edward A. Uffington Valentine has given us in "Heckla Sandwith." Mr. Valentine who has already attracted attention by a volume of verse "Ships of Silence", very kindly reviewed by his friend Mr. James Lane Allen in the Outlook Magazine a year or so ago, has made a daring venture.

There are points of similarity in the case to "Cranford" and "Old Town Folks" which launched their authors, they say, on rough seas, while perhaps the only absolute portrait in the book is our old friend "Warren" (Whom some of us will never cease to miss) yet the author has combined traits and episodes of actual life into personalities not wholly original, kindly, yet boldly sketched.

Every Bellefonter should read the book and our papers should let the surrounding counties know that we are enjoying romantic attention; that while we pretend to be indifferent, yet, we should really be glad if the sale would be a large one.

And now this last week published by Henry Holt & Co. of New York, from the pen of Fred Lewis Pattee, professor of English at State College, (who a few years ago published "Mary Garvin" a novel which had a big run in the Book Lovers Library) appears a new novel with the alluring title of "The Home of The Black Ring." There is no doubt that we have a right to claim that too.

The author has made that very plain and it ought to have a wide circulation throughout our county and be read by nearly every one who can read. On the protecting paper cover it is thus characterized "A Story of a Group of Pennsylvania Dutch" in a village of the Seven Mountains.

It tells of the Squire a sort of fendal lord, his enemies, his fate, his daughter, and how she would have her way in love. The weird influence of the "Home of the Black Ring is ever present but there is much humor too.

To fix the matter beyond mistake, the book is prefaced by a map, professedly of the "Seven Mountains" a little idealized in which appears a valley which might be hard to find, the famous "Bear Meadows" appear as "Hell bottom," and there are other names which will set the hunters to guessing.

It might be possible for you good editors of our town to print an extract now and then from one or both of these books, some scene or other, just enough to set people to wondering at the truth behind the romance.

At anyrate it surely is a natural expectation that our County papers would take some notice of two new Centre County novels.

Yours Very Truly.

PAUL JONES' BODY!

Discovered and Identified by a French Expert.

IN A GOOD CONDITION

When it is Taken Into Consideration That it has Been Under Ground Over One Hundred Years.

THE SEARCH HAS LASTED FIVE YEARS.

Paris, April 15.—The remarkable search which Ambassador Porter has conducted for the body of Paul Jones has been crowned with success by the discovery of the body and its identification Friday by the highest French medical experts as unquestionably that of the famous American admiral, who founded the American navy.

Ambassador Porter cabled to Washington announcing the successful results of his long and difficult search. The body is in a good state of preservation considering that the interment took place over one hundred years ago.

The circumstances leading to the final discovery of the body are particularly interesting. General Porter has conducted the search for the last five years, and when congress recently took no action upon the president's recommendation for the expenses incident to the search, the ambassador continued the extensive labors at his own expense. The large force of workmen has been engaged night and day tunneling and cross-tunneling the old St. Louis cemetery. This constituted a huge operation, embracing nearly a block covered with buildings and requiring a system of subterranean mining.

Hundreds of wooden caskets were found but not until Wednesday were unearthed four leaden caskets, which gave promise of containing the body of the admiral. Three of them bore plates designating the names of the deceased, The fourth showed superior solidity of workman ship. It was opened in the presence of General Porter. Colonel Bally d'Blanchard, the second secretary of the American embassy and Engineer Weis, who has been directing the excavation. The body was found to be well preserved, owing to its being immersed in alcohol. It was wrapped in a sheet with a packing of straw and hay. Those present were immediately struck by the resemblance of the head on the medallions and busts of the admiral.

As was anticipated, no uniform, decorations or sword were found; as all such articles had been accounted for after the burial.

The coffin was taken to the medical school where Doctors Capitan and Papillaut, distinguished professors of the school of anthropology, and recognized authorities on such investigations, were charged with making a thorough examination for the purpose of identifications. To facilitate this the ambassador furnished them with portraits and medallions, two busts by Houdin and authentic descriptions of the color of the admirals hair and the height and measurments of his body. After the most minute examination, the identification of the remains as those of Admiral Jones were pronounced complete in every particular.

The body has been carefully packed. The limbs were wrapped in tinfoil, presumably for sea transportation, as indicated in a letter of the admiral's nearest friend and as a pall-bearer of his funeral, Colonel Blackden, who said:

"His body was put in a leaden coffin so that in case the United States, which he had so essentially served, should claim his remains they might be more easily removed,"

Finding that the internal organs were singularly well preserved, the doctors made an autopsy, which showed distinct proofs of the disease from which the admiral is known to have died.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad at times I could not speak above a whispe," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. It's effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." For sale by C. M. Parrish.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough

Mrs. Ellen Harrison of 300 Park Ave. Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two childred had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. For sale by C. M. Parrish.

Was He Foully Dealt With.

The lifeless body of Michael McHugh, residing near Osceola, was found in the Moshannon creek Wednesday afternoon at a point in close proximity to the coal tipple of J. R. Barnes, and not far distant from the home of the deceased.

The deceased was one of a number who had been drinking the night before. He mysteriously disappeared and his friends could get no trace of him until, after a diligent search, his dead body was found in the water at the time and place herein mentioned. An ugly bruise back of one of his ears has led many to believe that he was perhaps foully dealt with, and his friends insist on a thorough investigation.

The deceased was a coal miner, aged about 60 years, and is survived by a wife and several grown up children.

Vin-Te-Na... Means Vim.

It is a medicine that actually feeds the weakened nerves by enriching and purifying the blood. Each ingredient is of the highest medical value. It cures more diseases than any other remedy on the market simply because it gets right down to the source of nine-tenths of all diseases, that is, the blood and nerves. When the blood is made pure and rich and the nerves are toned, diseases disappear as surely as shadows disappear when the light is turned on. If you are rheumatic; if you have stomach, liver or bowel trouble; if your nervous system is going to pieces, Vin-te-na will cure you because all these troubles are caused by bad blood.

EDITORIAL.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican County convention on Tuesday was one of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions ever held by the party in Centre county and Republicans can congratulate themselves on entering this campaign with brighter prospects of success than ever before in their history. There was no opposition to Henry Kline for Sheriff and Earle C. Tuten was nominated for Register by acclamation, but for Treasurer, Commissioners and Recorder there were spirited contests, but the will of the people prevailed and everybody, we believe, is satisfied that a good, strong ticket was nominated.

One thing was made very plain by the convention and that is that no Boss rules the Republican party of today. We have good, capable leaders but they are not Bosses and the ticket named on Tuesday clearly represents the majority of the Republicans of Centre county. The result was absolutely the expression of popular sentiment unbiased through the medium of personal influence, uncontrolled by the power of the "sinews of political war."

It is needless to say that the Republicans of Centre county are united this fall. The convention evinced that fact, and conclusively. The enthusiasm which marked the entire session, the applause which punctuated the proceedings from time to time voiced a united disposition to stand by the ticket, and work for the ticket, and win for the ticket.

Of the ticket nominated by the convention little need be said. They are men of whom naught but good can be spoken. They are true and loyal Republicans who have always been active and energetic workers in the party's interests and aggressive in the party's campaigns. A better ticket has never been named by a Republican Centre county convention. The convention had splendid timber to choose from and where there were contests it was pretty hard to decide which candidate to take for they were all good true men equally fit for the positions they aspired to.

The ticket nominated will win if we each and all give it a hearty and a united support. Give no heed to Democratic slurs and inuendoes. Just make up your mind to stand by your party's nominees and give them your influence and support.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., April 19th.

"While the carping critics carp, as the president is fond of saying, the administration is daily demonstrating, in a quiet and unobstrusive manner, the benefits which this country can, and has, and will continue to bestow on the Philippines, not out of pure philanthropy, of course, but as a result of a determination to deal fairly with "the little brown man" and because of the long experience and superior wisdom of the United States. The experience which the American colonies, the early Federation and the infant Republic gained at high cost, the little Filipino is profiting by now. In time he will enjoy all the prosperity of this country and will not have paid half the price, no, not a tithe of that which the sturdy American was compelled to pay before he knew as much about government and economies as he does not.

For the first time in their history the Philippines enjoy a stable currency, on the metric system, and they have made money acquiring it. Under the fatherly guidance of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, which directs all things Philippine, bonds were issued to maintain the parity between the Filipino coinage and gold and the premium on these bonds have amounted to from $1.18 to $2.51 cents on each $100 of every issue. As the first two issues were refunded, the premium was nearly doubled so that the entire transaction has in itself proved very profitable. Then bonds were issued to purchase the Friars' lands which will now be opened to privrte settlement. Bonds were issued to raise the purchase price of these lands and on the total issue of $7,000,000 the premium was $7.57 on every $100. When the lands are sold to private parties, in small areas, the purchase price will be aggregated to pay off the bonds and it is probable that the purchase price will considerably exceed the total bond issue. The last issue of Philippine bonds, made on March 10, amounted to $2,500,000, was many times oversubscribed and brought the highest recorded premium, $9.06 on every $100. The proceeds of this issue will be devoted to such public improvements, as port and harbor works, bridges, school buildings, court houses, penal institutions, etc.

Not only has the Philippine government been able to sell its bonds at a premium, because, of course, of the credit of the United States, and in marked contrast with those little Republics in South America, for instance where the money lenders exact ruinous discounts, but now that the money is in the Philippine treasury it will be expended under the supervision of the best men this country can afford, men whose long experience in contracting for public improvements will insure to the Filipinos the full value of every dollar of public funds expended. This affords another sharp contrast to the usual course followed in new and weak Republics.

Secretary Taft has announced, that the Venezuelan case, involving the interests of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company, popularly known as "the Asphalt Trust' is a closed incident. In other words, the United States will accept without protest president Castro's refusal to submit the case to arbitration while it is pending in the Venezuelan courts and all sensational reports to the contrary, which will doubtless appear from time to time in the daily press, may be accepted as without warrant. Of course if Castro perpetrates some overtact against an American citizen the vengeance of the United States will follow swiftly and surely, but as long as Castro confines his course merely to prolong the pending litigation this country will attempt no reprisals.

ORIENTAL WOMEN

They Spend an Astonishing Amount of Time Over Their Toilets.

An eastern lady of high degree spends an amount of time over her toilet that would quite astonish the most fashionable society lady. First she has her hair dressed by her maid, who, after anointing the long, silky black locks with a little oil made from aloe wood or cocoanut, arranges it simply in a long, smooth plait, low on the nape of the neck, and decorated either with gold or jeweled ornaments.

Next the bath is prepared as hot as it can be, and in this the lady may stay as long as two or three hours. Soaps are not used, but instead there are multifarious unguents, secret preparations of the bathing women, which render the skin soft as velvet and delicately perfumed. Oftentimes the face is washed over with milk into which has been squeezed lemon juice.

The hair of the oriental woman is usually beautifully long, soft and glossy, and the way they arrange it is invariably becoming to their soft type of beauty. Perfumes are much indulged in. These are introduced in the bath and permeate the garments, but are rarely used on a handkerchief.—Philadelphia North American.

Today.

Today is your day and mine, the only day we have, the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand, but we are here to play it, and now is our time. This we know, it is a cynicism. It is for us to express love in terms of helpfulness. This we know, for we have learned from sad experience that any other source of life leads toward decay and waste.—David Starr Jordan.

His Diagnosis.

Mrs. Green—William, what objection have you to that young man who is calling on our daughter? Green—He is silly, Mary. Mrs. Green—Oh, that's because he is in love! I remember the time when you were a very silly young man. Green—Silly isn't the proper name for it, Mary. I was a measly idiot—that's what I was!

Artiacial Beauty In Rome.

Personal artifice is at least as old as the Roman empire, for, speaking of the artificial beauty of a coquette, Martiol says: "Gollu, you are but a composition of falsehood. While you were living at Rome your boir was growing on the banks of the Rhine. At night when you lay aside your silken robes you lay aside your teeth also. Two-thirds of your person are locked up in boxes for the night. The eyebrows with which you make such insinuating motions are the work of your slaves. Thus no man can say, 'I love you,' for you are not what he loves, and no one loves what you are."

A Lord Sold Into Slavery.

Charles Reade found the hero of his novel, "The Wandering Heir," in the person of Lord Altham of Ireland, who was sold as a "redemptioner" at Philadelphia in 1728 and who served for twelve years in effect as a slave to one or more masters in Lancaster county, Pa. The young nobleman was recognized by two Irishmen who came by accident to the house where he lived, and Admiral Vernon afterward took him back to Ireland. Reade laid the scene of Lord Altham's servitude in northern Delaware, but it is pretty well established that this was an error.

Washing Windows.

In washing windows use borax water or borax soapsuds and dry quickly with a soft old cloth. Use plenty of hot water, but do not slop. Kerosene added to the water in which the sashes are washed will make them shine, besides cleansing them rapidly. There are any number of good washing powders and preparations for cleaning glass. Wash a pane at a time, using a clean cloth and tepid water. Polish with newspaper.

The Way to Shine.

The only way to shine, even in this false world, is to be modest and unassuming. Falsehood may be a thick crust, but in the course of time truth will find a place to break through. Elegance of language may not be in the power of us all, but simplicity and straightforwardness are. — Woman's Life.

The Soldiers Monument.

In order to secure absolute accuracy in the names and spelling thereof on our soldiers' monument, we will publish from time to time the lists of certain companies so as to enable those who are interested to suggest changes in initials or spelling, and also to suggest the names of any persons who may have been omitted from the rolls. This is the last opportunity which will be given to our people and to the survivors or friends of deceased soldiers who served from Centre county to have these names corrected. The Committee, therefore, appeals very earnestly to all who are interested in the subject to carefully scan all the names to ascertain

1st, whether any have been omitted; and

2nd, whether the names of those already contained in the rolls are properly spelled.

It is also very important that the names of soldiers who enlisted in organizations outside of the county or state should be secured, in order that they may find their place among the nation's defenders upon the monument. This is perhaps the most important thing which the Committee has in charge, the organizations from our own county being already well known. If, therefore, any person, in or out of the county, has knowledge of a citizen of Centre couny who enlisted in organizations outside of the county and state, it is specially important that their names should be ascertained, so that they may find a place among those who enlisted at home.

Any communication in regard to these names addressed to Gen. John I. Curtin or William H. Musser, Bellefonte, will receive prompt attention.

Millions of Money, Millions

The way the Standard Oil Co. made their millions was by selling us coal oil. Every time we consume a gallon of coal oil we add to their millions. They have a net profit of over 100 per cent. on every gollon of oil we consume. Electric light and city gas are both sold at over 100 per cent. clear profit. If you buy a and make your own light, which is a beautiful, soft white light, and only costs about one-third as much as city gas or electric light It is cheaper than coal oil. The Sunlight "Omega" light machine works automatically, no trouble and so simple to operate that anyone can learn how to make the light in ten minutes. If you live in the country, city or town you can have light that is better, purer, cheaper, less dangerous and less troublesome than any light in existance.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Republicans of Centre county, by their representatives in convention assembled, do hereby reaffirm their devotion to the principles and traditions of the Republican party,

We endorse and applaud the administration of President Roosevelt and the wise and patriotic domestic and foreign policy which he and his able advisors have pursued, under which our people at home as well as abroad are honored, protected and defended.

The wise, patriotic and economical administration of the Honorable Samuel W. Pennypacker, Governor of Pennsylvania, commends itself to the people of the State and demonstrates that as chief executive he always keeps in view the best interests of the tax-payers and at the same time maintains the dignity and credit of the Commonwealth.

We commend and give our unqualified endorsement to the careful and vigilant course of our Senators and Representatives in Congress. They have not only discharged their respective duties toward the Nation and State with ability, but they have conscientiously cared for the interests of all individuals entrusted to them. We especially commend the Honorble Boise Penrose for his untiring efforts and a great victory, in behalf of a thirty-five foot channel in the Delaware river, which will be of inestimable benefit not only to the city of Philadelphia, but also to the entire State of Pennsylvania. We likewise commend the wise and patriotic course of our own Congressman, the Hon. S. R. Dresser, at whose hands all our citizens have received the same courteous consideration, as many widows of patriots, deserving veterans and others in private life can attest.

In Col. E. A. Irvin, the State Senator from this District, and in the Hon. P. E. Womeldorf, our member of the General Assembly, we have two representatives whose actions have shown that they always have had at heart the best and highest welfare of their constituents.

We present to the Republican State Convention as a candidate for re-nomination for Superior Judge, our distinguished fellow-citizen, the Honorable James A. Beaver, whose able and upright career as a jurist should entitle him to a unanimous re-nomination by the Republicans of the State. And we hereby endorse for Judges of the Superior Court, the Honorable James A. Beaver, the Honorable Charles E. Rice and the Honorable George B. Orlady, and instruct our Delegates to the State Convention, this day chosen, to vote, and use all honorable means for their nomination.

We earnestly pledge our united and individual support to the Republican State Ticket, as well as to our County Ticket, this day named, and we promise our utmost effort to secure the election of every candidate on the ticket.

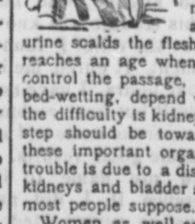
"I feel as if I should fly to pieces." How often those words are on a womans's lips. They express to the uttermost the nerve racked condition of the body, which makes life a daily martyrdom.

If this condition had come suddenly it would have been unbearable. But the transition was gradual. A little more strain each day on the nerves. A little more drain each day of th vitality. Any woman would be glad to be rid of such a condition. Every woman tries to be rid of it. Thousands of such woman have been cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment with his "Favorite Prescription" when local doctors had entirely failed to cure.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.



Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE RUSSIAN ICON.

It Is Simply a Religious Picture Blessed by a Priest.

An icon is simply a religious picture, generally of little artistic merit, and the subject usually represented is either a Russian saint, some event in the life of Jesus Christ or the Virgin Mary. In the Greek church, as in other Christian churches, the worship of graven images is forbidden, but no objection is made to anything reproduced on a flat surface. Therefore icons are permitted in the form of mosaics, paintings, enamels or prints. They play an important part in the religious life of the Russians and are to be met with everywhere—in churches, public offices, private houses and shops. A picture to become an icon must be blessed by a priest, and it is then regarded not only as an ornament, but as an accessory in the worship of the Greek church. Icons are also worn on the person, when they take the form of a plaque or a book with two leaves. Almost every soldier wears one on his bosom, and when he prays he takes out his icon and, opening it, kneels down before it as if it were a portable altar. Every regiment has its own icon, which it carries as it would carry its banner when the regiment goes into battle.

THE PRICE OF A LIFE.

How It Was Fixed Under the Old Anglo-Saxon Laws.

According to Anglo-Saxon laws, every man's life, including that of the king, was valued at a fixed price, and any one who took it could commute the offense by a money payment upon a fixed scale. The life of a peasant was reckoned to be worth 200 shillings, that of a man of noble birth 1,200 shillings, and the killing of a king involved the regicide in a payment of 7,200 shillings.

It has been pointed out that the heir to the throne could thus get rid of the existing occupant by murdering him and thereafter handing over the fine, according to the scale, to the exchequer, when his offense would be purged and his money would come back to himself, for in those days the sovereign received all fines as personal perquisites. There is very little doubt that these rough means were practically applied in the case of some rulers of England in the preconquest period.—London Telegraph.

Two Edged Punishment.

An English newspaper says that a schoolmaster was in the habit of punishing scholars who came late to school in the morning by keeping them in in the afternoon. One who was five minutes late was kept in ten minutes and so on in proportion. One

When a Kick Helps.

When one lacks the courage boldly to advance along the perilous course his intelligence counsels, he is lucky if he can and will goad some one into kicking him along it past the point where retreat is impossible.—Success.

AN ODD WHIST HAND.

It Looks Like a Sure Winner, but Can Take Only Six Tricks.

To any one familiar with whist the following hand is bound to look pretty good:

Hearts.—Ace, king, queen, jack, ten and nine.
Diamonds.—Ace, king and queen.
Spades.—Ace and king.
Clubs.—King and jack.
Hearts are trumps.

It looks like a good thing for eleven tricks sure and possibly for twelve. Should any whist player of experience get such a hand, however, he will be mighty apt to be as suspicious as the poker player who is dealt four kings. It is what is known as a "yarborough" in whist circles, and this is the denouement: The dealer holds the other seven hearts (trumps) and six small clubs to the ten. The dealer's partner holds the ace and queen of clubs and one small club. What his other ten cards are makes no difference.

The partner of the person holding the good hand holds the thirteen other cards, and it makes no difference what they are. The "good" hand has the lead, and if any whist player wishes to verify the assertion he may try from now until doomsday and yet not be able to take more than six tricks with the hand. It is impossible by good, bad or indifferent play to take a single trick more, provided, of course, the dealer and his partner play their hands properly.—Baltimore Sun.

Annual Whipping Days.

Canterbury school in England had an annual whipping day, when, as Green tells us, an all round whipping was given to the boys not for any definite fault on their part, but with a view to their general improvement. Canterbury was not singular in the belief that a sound birching now and then was in itself a good thing for boys. The idea was commonly held in the old scholastic world and was regularly acted upon by the most famous head masters, from Dean Colet to Dr. Keate. Erasmus says he was flogged on this principle, and Charles Lamb found it to be the practice at Christ's hospital.

A Village Fiasco.

Gifted Amateur (concluding pet card trick)—Now, ladies and gentlemen, you have seen the pack of cards burned before your eyes and the ashes placed inside the box, which mysteriously transformed itself into a rabbit, which in turn disappeared into space. I will now ask this gentleman to name the card he selected, when it will at once appear in my hand. Now, sir, what card did you select from the pack? Giles (who has been following the trick most intently)—Blessed if I recollect!—Punch.

Advice For Boys.

A boy who is envious of the good fortune of others and is dissatisfied because he, too, cannot have it makes all around him unhappy. He should not be envious of anything but the good traits of others, and these he may possess if his desire for them is real. One restless, unhappy boy in a house, who is always bemoaning his own fate and envying others, will jar upon the good nature of a saint. He should not be vainglorious and assume airs for something which he supposes places him a little beyond his fellow creatures. If he cannot respect himself he cannot hope to exact it from others, but his self esteem must be tempered with modesty. He may be conscious of his own achievements, but it will be more becoming in him to allow others to herald them.—Pilgrim.

The Boy Was Right.

A schoolteacher, examining the class, lights on the youngest and is so struck with his intelligent aspect that he questions him forthwith, "Now, my little man, what do five and two make?" The little one remained silent. "Well, suppose, now, I were to give you five rabbits today and two more tomorrow, how many rabbits would you have then?" "Eight!" promptly answered the juvenile. "Eight! Why, how do you make that out?" "'Cause I've got one to home already."

He Knew It All.

Here is the exact answer of a New York schoolboy to the questions, "What is the meaning of the word 'hall,' how many other words are there that sound like 'hall' and what are their meanings?"

"Hall, where you open the dore and go in; bawl, bawling along a boy that won't go to skool; aul, what the shoemakes charges you 25 cents for to aul your shoes; all, all, everybody in the wurld."—Success.

Funny Kind of Kick.

Some little girls were returning home from the park when they were overtaken by a goat that wanted the whole street. They ran for dear life, the foremost shouting to her companions: "Run, run, girls! He will kick you with his head!"

What "Light Diet" Means.

When a physician orders light diet for one who is just beginning to recover from a severe illness it is well to know exactly what dishes "light diet" includes. Here is a list given by a careful doctor of the writer's acquaintance: Clam, chicken and mutton broth, broiled filets of chicken, lamb chops, tenderloin steak, delicately cooked game, soft cooked eggs, dry and milk toast, cereal in small portions, koumiss, cocoa, custards, fresh fruit, gelatin jellies and sponge cake.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The most patient Bellefonte citizen must show annoyance at times.
Nothing spoils a good disposition.
Nothing taxes a man's patience.
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Itching piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable
All night it keeps you awake.
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.
Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any Itching of the skin.
Read the testimony of a Bellefonte citizen.

A hotel man of Bellefoute, says: "I have used Doan's Ointment and know it to be all that it is claimed to be. I tried it for itching hemorrhoids and other skin eruptions and found it to be not only one of the best, but in fact the only remedy that ever gave me any relief. I was in constant torment for years with hemorrhoids and anyone who has suffered from this trouble will know how welcome was the relief I found in Doan's Ointment. It cured me in about twenty-four hours. I have not only used it myself but have recommended it in numerous cases and always with the same good results. I would not allow my name to be used as a reference if I did not know it to be just as represented. I got the Ointment at F. Potts Green's drug store."

$500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

The Vice-President Independent Order of Good Templars.

An experience which many women have was related by Miss Agnes Stebbings, of 231 East 30th Street, New York City, as follows: "I had very poor health for a year until life looked dark and dreary to me. Had headaches, backache, also pain, my sleep was broken and fitful. I longed for health. Tried several medicines but none were of any lasting benefit until I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I soon realized that I had found the right remedy. It helped nature to throw off the poisons that saturated the system, removed all pains and strengthened the digestive organs, and brought the roses of health back to my cheeks. This medicine if taken occasionally keeps the system in perfect condition, helping it to throw off the disease and consequences of exposure to dampness. I am pleased to give it my endorsement."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Steeple Contained 2 Tons of Birds Nests.

While tearing down the steeple of the Grand Street church, at Wilkesbarre workmen Saturday discovered a mass of birds' nests weighing more than two tons. So great was the mass of twigs, straw, hay and strings that the trap door into the steeple could not be opened and the carpenters had to cut in from the outside.

They found enough nest making material to fill a hay wagon. It had been accumalating there for 35 years.

HUNTINGDON PRESBYTERY.

Overture for Union With the Cumberland Presbyterians Negotiated.

At a meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery at Mifflintown Wednesday the overture of the union with the Cumberland Presbyterians was answered in the negative by a vote of 40 to 26, the presbytery thus putting itself on record as against the union. Before the vote was taken a spirited debate occurred lasting for several hours. Rev. A. R. Day, of Alexandria, led the discussion with an appeal favoring the union. Dr. Freeman, of Huntingdon, spoke earnestly against it. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Carver, of Milesburg, who favored the union. Rev. R. M. Campbell, of Spruce Creek, vigorously opposed union, while Rev. William Schuyler, of Centre Hall, as earnestly favored it. Dr. Laurie in his usual determined way protested against union. Elder A. P. Wishard, of Wells Valley, opposed union. Rev. Mr. Deemer, of East Waterford, and Rev. Mr. Haughawaut, of Tuscarora, favored union.

Before the morning session closed a call from the West Kishacoquillas church for the pastoral services of Rev. George McLeod, promising $850 per year and parsonage, was accepted by Presbytery to be held by them until Rev. Mr, McLeod is received into the Presbytery. A call was also presented to Presbytery by the Little Valley church to Leon Stewart, a member of the senior class, Princeton Theological seminary, at a salary of $350 per year; also a call from Burnham church at $550 per year to Mr. Stewart, with use of the manse and four weeks vacation, Mr. Stewart has accepted the calls. A call from Newton Hamilton church at salary of $300 a year, with manse at Mapleton or Newton Hamilton, as minister may decide, and two weeks' vacation at each charge. was given to Rev. Horace G. Clair, approved and accepted by him.

J. B. Woodcock, a licentiate of the Presbytery, was dismissed to the Presbytery of Philadelphia. Rev. W. C. Kuhn, of Bellwood, at his own request, was honorably relieved from Presbytery. The following commissioners were elected to the General Assembly which will meet at Winona this year: Rev. D. E. Hepler, Fruit Hill, and Rev. Samuel Barber, Curwensville; alternates—Rev. R. P. Miller, Philipsburg, and H. B. Townsend, Bedford. Elders: Stiles K. Boden, Mifflintown, and W. S. Livingston, Altoona; alternates—George W. Ganoe and W. R. Davidson.

The Goose and the Hen.

A goose that had been laying an egg each day for some time was heard to remark that while she attended strickly to business, there had never been any poems or songs written about her as there had about the helpful hen, and then a wise old rooster that was standing near, butted into the game and replied: "Do you see that sister of mine over there? Every time she lays an egg she gets up and tells everybody about it, and when you lay an egg you simply go waddling off about your own business, and say nothing." There are a great many business men who do business on the goose's plan. Nobody knows what they are doing.

As the Filipino Sees Us.

In this day when we are placing a value on the Filipino, it is interesting to know that he is also making calculations concerning us. Pacific Laygo, a Filipino student of the Missouri State University, has decided opinions concerning the American people, "You ask me," he says, "what I think of American life. You have no homes. You are gone mad ofter money. You have no time for home life. We are not dollar mad in the Philippine Islands. We love and enjoy our homes. You Americans do not. This, in my judgment, is your natural weakness."—Burlington Junction Post.

The Man Without Enemies.

"You have no enemies? Then you never dared to stand up for the right against wrong, you have never protected the weak against a bully, you have never even dared to defend your own rights against oppression. Had you done any of these things you would have made enemies. Even if you had done none of these things but simply achieved a little more success in your business than did your neighbor, you would have an enemy for failure always hates success. The man who has no enemies should be ashamed of it."—The Centralia (Mo.) Courier.

The Man Who Helps His Wife.

Generally he is a little man.

He is fussy, and wants a finger in every pie.

He orders everything from the spring housecleaning to the setting of a new hoop on the washtub.

He arises first in the morning and helps to dress the children, and sets Tom into Bessie's pinafores, and Minnie into Sammy's knee pants, before his wife discovers the mistake, and then he says it is just as well. Let'em go so that day. He makes the fire and scatter shavings from the woodshed to the kitchen and spatters water over the polished surface of the stove, and looks black as thunder when his wife scolds and tells him to be careful; and says he guesses she'd miss him if he was gone; and he declares if she had all the work to do herself she'd sing another song, and he should think that a man who is always helping his wife ought to be treated with some show of decency.

If he was a housekeeper he says he'd have different goings on! He'd see if the butcher would give him ten pounds of roast when he ask for five. As if anybody wanted to live on roast beef a lifetime! Variety, he tells his wife, is what is needed on a family table.

Just watch him clean up the room. He puts his boots in the closet on top of his wife's corsets, which have fallen down, and he tosses his dirty stockings into the drawer with her laces and piles the ribbons, and bracelets, and newspapers, and cigar stumps, and play bills, and wisps of hair from the comb, all together into a box; and when his wife dresses for afternoon, it will take her an hour to find the very ribbon she wants to wear, and then it will smell as if it had been hung up in a bar room ever since it was manufactured.

He brags to his friends about how he can do housework. And his wife listens, and says nothing, but she thinks of the grease he has spilled on the carpet, and the stove blacking he has spattered on the wall paper, and the new sheet he has tore in two getting it off the clothesline and the glass dishes he has broken by putting them in hot water. the soap he has left to melt in the bathtub, the kettles he has burned by burning his cookery to a cinder, the thousand and one vexations which his ignorance has brought upon her; and she wishes within herself that a man whose mission it is to help his wife had never been invented.

Centre County Census Directory.

Ask any business, professional or newspaper man or any banker who has had occasion to use it since its publication several years ago, by J. A. Feidler, and they will emphatically tell you that the Centre County Census Directory is the best and most useful publication of the kind ever compiled for Centre county. It contains the name of every man, woman and child in the county as gathered by the census enumerator at the time. Besides, it gives the ages of all males, the occupation of those employed and their post office address.

Each borough and township is arranged by itself with a correct prefactory history of each municipality and its formation.

The Pastor's Visits.

The advice of Bishop Berry, of the Methodist Episcopal church, to ministers visiting their parishoners in the evening rather than in the afternoon is, in my judgment, timely in the right spirit and for the best interests of the church, notwithstanding the uncharitable criticisms of one of our papers.

It is well to have the pastor meet the husband and the children, as well as the mother and pray and converse with them as families in regard to the interests of the church. More of such pastoral calls in the evening will advance the Lord's work in our midst.

ROJESTVENSKY AND CERVERA

Seven years ago this month Cervera started across the Atlantic to meet the United States Navy in its home waters. Rojestvensky is now engaged in a similar mission against the Japanese in the Far East.

Although Spain had sent her fleet to the Cape Verde Islands, it was doubted even after war was declared whether she would risk her ships on this side of the Atlantic. But on April 29 Cervera set sail from St. Vincent with four cruisers and two torpedo-boat destroyers. Two days later Dewey wiped out the Spanish fleet in Manila bay. For two weeks Washington officials and the Board of Strategy were unable to get any word of Cervera's movements. On May 15 he unexpectedly turned up at Curacoa, where he managed to coal under the neutrality restrictions. On May 29 he entered the port of Santiago after dodging both Sampson's and Schley's squadrons.

For six weeks he lay blockaded in the harbor. Spain threatened to send a fleet to reinforce him, but held off. Finally, on orders from Madrid, on that fateful July morning he made a sortie and saw his vessels one after another annihilated. Cervera had demanded freedom to use his own judgment and to destroy his warships in the bay of Santiago, but the home Government insisted that for political reasons he must risk destruction. The repulse of Linares by the American land forces outside Santiago had made it expedient that Cervera's fleet be sacrificed to the pride of the dynasty.

See how closely Russia's course follows Spain's. Russia had long meditated despatching the Baltic fleet to the Far East in spite of Japan's victories on land and sea. But Rojestvensky's two squadrons had not yet reached Madagascar when the last of the Port Arthur fleet was destroyed in the harbor in December. He had anchored in Nossi-Be Harbor before he learned of their fate. There he remained for two whole months. A third squadron joined him and another was promised.

Would he go on to Vladivostok or would he be recalled? He had gathered a formidable fleet, but the odds looked against him. Then in March came news of Kuropatkin's crushing defeat at Mukden. Russia was ripe for rebellion; the autocracy was in peril. In the desperate hope of averting a political crisis St. Petersburg ordered him to sail. On March 19 he set out from Nossi-Be. For three weeks his whereabouts was unknown. When he appeared off Singapore the world was as much surprised as when Cervera turned up at Curacoa. Possibly the Japanese did not wholly share in that surprise, but they kept their knowledge to themselves At any rate their scout-ships are now keeping close to the visitors.

For what port is the Russian now heading? Will he make a friendly harbor or will Togo intercept him? What will be the ultimate fate of this great fleet which Rojestvensky is leading to fight Japan at her very door? Will he be crushed as Cervera was in a single battle? Will history repeat in the Pacific what was ordained in the Atlantic? Will the Admiral be disgraced and hundreds of brave men slaughtered as a blood-offering on the altar of dynastic pride?

This much seems sure—if Rojestvensky is defeated Russia must consent to stop the war.

—A famous physician, upon being asked what is the cause of ill health replied: "Thinking and talking about it all the time. The ceaseless introspection in which so many of the rising generations of nervous folks indulge is certainly wearing them out. When they are not worrying as to whether they sleep too much or too little they are fidgeting over the amount of food they take or the quantity of exercise for health. Cold weather, of course, may cause a greater consumption of coal but perhaps the coal is poor and tons of it must be used to get up even and ordinary heat.

Not so much with this Coal of ours. It neither flies up the chimney in smoke nor drops through the grate as ashes. It burns slowly and makes things red hot while burning.

—At 11 o'clock Friday morning the fire alarm sounded for the South ward and both fire companies were soon on the scene. The fire proved to be the roof of the tenement house on Logan street, owned by Henry Walkey and occupied by David Wireman. The blaze did not prove serious and a few buckets of water soon extinguished the fire without recourse to the fire engines or hose. The damage done was very slight. The fire caught from a defective flue.

Senior Class Easter Orations.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the class of '05 of the B. H. S. will deliver their Easter orations. Owing to the growth of the classes in recent years it is necessary to divide the class into two divisions, one reciting at X mas and the other at Easter; therefore though all the members are compelled to write orations, only eight will recite, the other nine members having recited at X-mas.

Judging from the practical subjects, which suggest study and research, and the known ability of the participants in this exercise it will be a most interesting and instructive performance. Your presence is most kindly solicited as it will not only encourage the speakers but also show your appreciation of the increasing value of our High School.

The speakers and their subjects are as follows

Death of Thomas Kennedy

Thomas Kennedy, a well known farmer of the Buffalo Run Valley, died at his home on the McKnight farm near Hunter's Park Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. He had been ailing for some time and his death was due to the infirmities of old age. He was 75 years of age and is survived by his aged wife, they were for several years residents of Bellefonte.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Meyer's cemetery.

Templars Will Crowd Williamsport.

Quite a number of the Knight Templar commanderies that will attend the annual conclave at Williamsport, May 22 24, propose to room and eat in special trains. The Bellefonte commandery has secured the Republican club house on Williams street for their headquarters. The question of feeding the many visitors to Williamsport during the days of the conclave is one that is just now giving the local committees some concern. While the local hotels and restaurants will be taxed to their utmost capacity, it has been suggested by the committees in charge that the several churches in the centre of the city might arrange to serve meals.

An Easter Ball

The Undine fire company will hold their 17th annual Easter ball in the armory on Monday evening, April 24th. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music. The committee composed of William Cunningham, Chas. Anderson, Harry Vallance, Frank Doll, James Lowry, and Thomas Smith is already at work making arrangements which they hope will make it a very delightful affair.

—The concert to be given for the benefit of the Bellefonte Hospital April 25th is in charge of the Ladies Auxiliary of the hospital. Miss Rebecca Pugh Lyon has been glad to assist them by securing the services of two well known artists of Philadelphia, Miss Helen Frame, soprano, of Constantin Von Sternberg's conservatory and Miss Edna Bradfield, a talented young violinist. The pupils of Miss Lyon will not take any part in this concert, as she is giving a series of recitals for them in her studio. This concert for the hospital should be well patronized both as a musical treat, and for its humane object, which no doubt will appeal to all.

—Easter flowers or choice cut flowers at any time of the year can be had by consulting Miss Jennie Irwin, agent for Daniel E. Gorman, Williamsport, Pa.

CHARGED WITH MURDER!

Three Men in Bellefonte Jail for the Death of Michael McHugh.

In the inside of this issue we made brief mention of the finding of the body of Michael McHugh in Moshannon Creek. Friday's Philipsburg's Journal contains the following further particulars in regard to the matter:

The coroner's inquest, held Thursday afternoon by B. J. LaPorte Esq., of this place, over the dead body of Michael McHugh, found Thursday morning in the Moshannon creek, near Osceola, resulted in a verdict to the effect that the said McHugh came to his death by accidental drowning.

After the inquest additional evidence was received leading to the conclusion that McHugh was foully dealt with, and Friday morning Barney McHugh, son of the deceased, came before C. B. Sandford Esq., and made information against Charles Stewart, Howard Stewart and Winfield Gregg, charging them with aggravated assault and murder.

The defendants, as we close our forms are having a hearing before Justice Sandford, and some rather damaging evidence is being given in.

Since the above was put in type the hearing has closed, and the defendants remanded to Bellefonte jail, the evidence being of such a character as not to admit of bail.

Charles Stewart, against whom the evidence seems to be the most damaging, is aged about 28 years, and married, his brother about 24, while Winfield Gregg is a widower, an old soldier, aged about 55 years.

LATER.—Charles and Howard Stewart and Winfield Gregg, the three men arrested for the murder of old man McHugh were brought to Bellefonte Saturday afternoon on the 1:25 train and lodged in jail. They were in charge of Officer McMullen, of Philipsburg. They have retained John G. Love Esq., as their counsel.

Death of Mrs. Jerry Donavan.

The many friends of the Donavan family were shocked Wednesday evening, when the word reached Bellefonte, that Mrs. Mary J. Donavan, wife of Jerry Donavan, had passed peacefully away Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock, at the University hospital, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Donavan had been ailing for some time and about ten days ago in company with her sister in-law, Mrs. William McGowan, left Bellefonte for Philadelphia, where, under the skilled care of Dr. Clark, she contemplated undergoing an operation. Upon examination the doctors found her disease to be cancer of the stomach and so far advanced that an operation was unnecessary. Upon being informed of her condition she resigned herself to the will of Him who does all things well and bore her suffering with patience and resignation.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin McGowan, both deceased, and was aged about 60 years. She is survived by her husband, Jerry Donavan, and the following children: William, May, Nellie, Gust, Frank. Also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Ellie Felix, Joplin, Mo.; Mrs. Elizabeth Steinkirchner and Frank McGowan, of Newton, Kansas, and Mrs. Frank Bosch and William McGowan, both of Bellefonte.

The funeral took place on Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's Catholic church. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

In the Interest of Fair Play.

MR. EDITOR,

DEAR SIR:

The out come of Friday's ball game between the "All Stars" and Academy nines is a matter of little concern to any one. It is only right, however, that the facts be published.

At the beginning of the seventh inning the score stood 7-5 in favor of the "All Stars." In the seventh inning the Academy had a batting rally and filled the bases. One man was out when a long fly was knocked over third base and three runs scored, making the score stand 8-7 in the Academy's favor. The "All Stars" insisted that the hit which scored the runs was foul, Umpire Keichline called it fair and would not reverse his decision. The "All Stars" left the field and the game was abruptly ended. The score at the end, therefore must be either 8 7 or 9-0 in favor of the Academy and not 7-5 in favor of the "All Stars."

When a team fails to abide by the umpires decision, the score of 9-0 is generally declared by the umpire against the protesting team.

Fishing Season Opens.

The fishing season opened Saturday and the banks of our streams were lined with the followers of Izaak Walton. The weather however was too cold and there were very few large catches of the speckled beauties reported. Ed Harper caught a trout that measured 15 inches. Tom Fleming, Al Dale, John Nightbart, Will Garman and others had only ordinary luck. Taken all together the fishermen say it was a very poor opening and the worst in many years.

Hope for Green and Dillen Not Yet Abandoned.

Last week Henry C. Quigley Esq., appeared before Gov. S. W. Pennypacker at Harrisburg, and acting as attorney for Ira Green and William Dillen, the condemned murderers of Turnkey Jercy Condo, he asked that the death warrants be withdrawn to allow their counsel to carry their case before the Board of Pardons at its meeting in May. Governor Pennypacker after listening to the arguments positively refused the request.

Failing in thus securing a respite for the doomed men, their counsel went informally before the pardon board on April 19 and plead for a commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment. The condemned men have not yet given up hope.

The Man Who Helps His Wife.

Generally he is a little man.

He is fussy, and wants a finger in every pie.

He orders everything from the spring housecleaning to the setting of a new hoop on the washtub.

He arises first in the morning and helps to dress the children, and sets Tom into Bessie's pinafores, and Minnie into Sammy's knee pants, before his wife discovers the mistake, and then he says it is just as well. Let'em go so that day. He makes the fire and scatter shavings from the woodshed to the kitchen and spatters water over the polished surface of the stove, and looks black as thunder when his wife scolds and tells him to be careful; and says he guesses she'd miss him if he was gone; and he declares if she had all the work to do herself she'd sing another song, and he should think that a man who is always helping his wife ought to be treated with some show of decency.

If he was a housekeeper he says he'd have different goings on! He'd see if the butcher would give him ten pounds of roast when he ask for five. As if anybody wanted to live on roast beef a lifetime! Variety, he tells his wife, is what is needed on a family table.

Just watch him clean up the room. He puts his boots in the closet on top of his wife's corsets, which have fallen down, and he tosses his dirty stockings into the drawer with her laces and piles the ribbons, and bracelets, and newspapers, and cigar stumps, and play bills, and wisps of hair from the comb, all together into a box; and when his wife dresses for afternoon, it will take her an hour to find the very ribbon she wants to wear, and then it will smell as if it had been hung up in a bar room ever since it was manufactured.

He brags to his friends about how he can do housework. And his wife listens, and says nothing, but she thinks of the grease he has spilled on the carpet, and the stove blacking he has spattered on the wall paper, and the new sheet he has tore in two getting it off the clothesline and the glass dishes he has broken by putting them in hot water, the soap he has left to melt in the bathtub, the kettles he has burned by burning his cookery to a cinder, the thousand and one vexations which his ignorance has brought upon her; and she wishes within herself that a man whose mission it is to help his wife had never been invented.

A large audience was attracted to the High School rooms Monday afternoon to listen to the declamations of the class of '06. "Meazher's Defense".....John A. Rankin

The Silver Cup"...Miss Sara R. McClure

During the exercises Misses Louisa Brachbill and Edna Meyer favored the audience with a beautiful piano duet, and Miss Rachael Shuey also played a solo; the audience showed their appreciation by encores in both instances.

Each speaker did exceedingly well but as ten only are permitted to speak finally, nine were necessarily disappointed. The decision of judges George Bush and Alec Archey were approved generally.

Picture For His Share.

W. W. Curtin of Philadelphia, a son of the late ex-Governor Andrew C. Curtin of this place, has received a picture as his portion of his father's estate. It was the one thing the other heirs were least disposed to give.

When the "old war Governor" was in St. Petersburg as Minister to Russia, a friendship was formed between him and Czar Alexander II. When Mr. Curtin's appointment expired in 1872 the Czar gave him a magnificent life-size oil painting of himself. Since its reception by the Curtin family here it has been the greatest prized article in their ancestral home.

After the death of Mrs. Curtin, W. W. Curtin proposed that if the picture were given him he would renounce all claims to any further part of the estate of his father. After months of deliberation the majority of the heirs agreed to the son's proposition.

—Miss Belle Gobeen, met with a serious accident at her home at Rock Spring Monday evening. She fell through an opening in the barn floor and sustained the fracture of three ribs and perhaps internal injuries of serious nature.

Watch the Signs of the Times.

Jesus answered them, "When it is evening ye say. It will be fair weather for the sky is red. Ye can discern the face of the sky but ye cannot discern the signs of the times."

Isaiah 60 chap. 4 verse prophesied "Lift up thine eyes round about and see all they gather themselves together and they come to thee. Then shalt thou see and flow together and thine heart shall be enlarged because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee." The fulfillment of these words are now upon us. The various streams of God's people are being gathered and flowing together as never before. The Baptists of North America have been formed into a general union convention which will hold its initial meeting at St. Louis, Mo., May 16th. The Baptists are outnumbered only by the Methodists in North America. The Wesleyan Methodist church of Italy has consolidated with the Evangelical church of Italy.

There is a very important movement in China looking to the union of all the Presbyterian churches throughout the Empire under one Chinese assembly. The committee on union which consists of missionaries from the English, Irish, Scotch, Canadian and American Presbyterian bodies has held two annual meetings and a plan has been drawn up for the union. A delightful spirit of fraternity and co-operation is the rule. The great essentials of our common faith are taught and insisted upon by all, but the non-essentials are sunk in the absorbing desire to save sinners and advance Christ's kingdom.

The old and new school of the Presbyterian church have for several years been united and are laboring harmoniously together. The Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches, which were divided during the Civil war, on the question of slavery, were harmonized during the last General Assembly. Dr Hamlin, of Washington, D. C., made a motion that all resolutions which had been passed by the Northern church in any wise reflecting upon the religious character of the Southern church should be erased and forever forgotten. This motion was heartily carried and then the doxology was sung with earnest spirit of that great assembly. This glad news was heartily received by the Southern assembly and reciprocated by sending back a thanksgiving telegram and they too joined in the great doxology.

And now the great streams of the Presbyterian church and the Cumberland Presbyterian church are being gathered together. The majority of churches North and South have already proven themselves to be on the side of union which is manifestly the spirit of this age and century. The divisions of God's people are being healed, His forces are being united and combined for a great formal movement under Christ our captain and king against the strongholds of sin and Satan. The great river of God's love and power is flowing on and gathering forces in its progress and all resisting and opposing forces must either fall in with the current or be swept aside into the eddies, or be left upon the banks to droop and die. Watch the signs of the times and then fall in and pray and work together that we may be in readiness for Christ at His appearing. "Then shall we know that He the Lord is our Saviour and our Redeemer and the mighty one of Jacob." CITIZEN,

A Lucky Find.

Last Friday afternoon as Miss Lillian Hall, the 12 years old daughter of conductor J. D. Hall of the C. R. R. of Pa. was on the boardwalk at Atlantic City. She picked up a pocket book containing $100.00. In due time the owner was found who proved to be a visiting Methodist minister. He thanked her again and again and gave her $10.00 as a reward for her honesty.
